STANDING RESOLUTIONS

In Regards to Missionary Appropriation

Resolved, That the missionary money appropriated to the different missions in this conference be paid monthly, and that no part be paid except by order of the Conference Superintendent, and if in the judgment of the quarterly conference the missionary fails to faithfully perform his work it shall be in the power of the next conference, upon the recommendation of the Conference Superintendent, to withohld any part of the amount appropriated by this conference. (Adopted 1875.)

In Regards to Reading Course Examinations

Resolved, That the examination in Course of Study shall hereafter be conducted in writing. (Adopted 1882.)

In Regards to Conference Claimants

Resolved, That the amount appropriated to conference claimants be hereafter paid monthly by the treasurer. (Adopted 1890.)

In Regards to Mission Charges

Resolved, That the amount received as a missionary appropriation by mission charges is to be added to the amount of salary received on the charge, and be so reported to the conference chart. (Adopted 1890.)

In Regards to Appropriation From Preachers' Aid Fund

Resolved, That no preacher shall be entitled to an appropriation from the Preachers' Aid Fund until voted to a "Retired Itinerant" relation by the annual conference. All preachers and preachers' widows, deserving aid from this fund, shall make application to the Conference Finance Committee on the blank authorized by the conference, this blank to be signed by the chairman and secretary of the quarterly conference of which the applicant is a member. Blanks shall be furnished applicants by the Conference Superintendent. The Conference Finance Committee shall then consider each case on its own merits. (Adopted 1922.)

In Regards to Letters of Introduction of Removed Members

Resolved, That the Conference Superintendent require all pastors to follow the non-resident members removing from their parishes with letters (not of membership but of introduction), to the nearest pastor so that we shall be able to conserve them to our beloved Zion for Kingdom building. (Adopted in 1930.)

In Regards to Plan of Conducting the Reading Course

It is hereby recommended that the Miami Conference adopt the following plan of conducting the reading course examinations and the passing of licentiates, namely:

(a) That a Reading Course Faculty of five (5) members be named, said faculty to be organized as one faculty with a chairman and stand-in secretary, the secretary to keep the permanent record as authorized by the Discipline, Chapter IX, Section II, Part II, Item 2, paragraph 3, page 83.

(b) That examinations in each year's course be delegated by the chairman to members of the faculty as agreed upon by the faculty.

(c) That the passing of each licentiate be acted upon by the entire faculty, the faculty to meet during the sessions of the conference at stated times to consider the character and standing of each person pursuing the reading course.

(d) That examinations be conducted at any time during the conference year according to such plans as agreed upon by the faculty. (Adopted in 1930, revised according to action of conference in 1942.)

(e) That the Reading Course Faculty be elected for a term of four years. (Adopted 1933.)

In Regards to the Christian Sabbath

Whereas, various county fairs and the Ohio State Junior Fair have been open on Sunday, automobile races, horse-pulling contests and other sporting events are being continually scheduled and held on Sunday; and this commercial use of the Christian Sabbath interferes with habits of worship and tends to destroy the religious value of the day.

Be it resolved, That we register our protest against such use of the Lord's Day and call upon our people and all other Christians to use their influence against such use of the Sabbath and have no part in sports and events held on this sacred day. (Adopted 1937.)

In Regards to Selection of Place For the Annual Conference Session

Resolved, That the invitations from the churches to entertain the next annual conference session should be given on Tuesday afternoon and the names of the churches placed on the first conference ballot. If no church receives a majority of the votes cast, the two receiving the largest number of votes on the first ballot be placed on the second ballot and the one receiving the largest number of votes be selected. (Adopted 1938.)

In Regards to the Historical Committee

Whereas, our method of electing the historical committee in the past has given the committee and the conference no assurance of continuity or permanency either in its work or its records.

Therefore, be it resolved, that of the three persons who are elected in today's election, the one receiving the highest number of votes be elected for a term of three years, the second highest for two years, and third highest for one year. That, hereafter, one person be elected each year for a term of three years. (Adopted 1939.)

In Regards to the Personnel of the Board of Publication

Be it resolved that the committee charged with the publication of the Miami Messenger be composed of the Conference Superintendent, conference recording secretary, president of the Conference Board of Christian Education and two additional members chosen by ballot. (Adopted 1939.)

In Regards to Historical Papers

We recommend to the Conference Board of Trustees that they provide a suitable place, preferably in the Conference Manse, for the safe keeping of materials of historical value that are or may come into possession of the conference, and that the Conference Superintendent be the custodian of these archives. (Adopted 1940.)

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTIONS APPEAR IN THE 1927 MINUTES AS STANDING RESOLUTIONS BUT NO DATE OF PASSING NOTED

1. That hereafter no appropriations be made by the Conference Board of Trustees or the Finance Committee beyond the income on hand or definitely provided for.
2. That no church in the conference shall contract any considerable debt for a new or remodeled building without first consulting the Conference Board of Trustees.
3. That no debt shall be larger than the local church can in the judgment of the Conference Board of Trustees pay off within a reasonable time.

It is recommended that pledges on debts or building funds be taken on a yearly basis.

Conference Proceedings

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

Mrs. Paul Kaltenback played an organ prelude "Les Rameau" by Faver.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D.D., LL.D., called the one hundred thirty-fifth session of the Miami Conference to order in the name of the Holy Trinity and read some selected proportions of the Holy Scripture.

Rev. W. I. Underwood, D.D., led the congregation in singing the Doxology.

Bishop Clippinger led in the invocation.

The congregation sang "Come Thou Almighty King."

We were led in responsive reading by Rev. L. M. Hohn, D.D., superintendent of Miami Conference. The reading was from Isaiah 53:1-12 and was entitled "The Atonement Foretold."

The ministers' quartet sang "Something for Thee." Members of this quartet were Revs. Milford Ater, M. B. Klepinger, Ivan Jenkins, and Emerson D. Bragg.

The Bishop brought the Communion Meditation on the subject "Closer Fellowship." He used Hebrews 10:19, 24. He said that, when Israel followed God afar they got into trouble. This same is true today. In the ritual of the sacrament the purpose is to have communion with God, the Father. So we begin our sessions with this communion service. Jesus said, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and its righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." Wherever the will of God is done there is the kingdom. Draw nigh unto God and he will draw nigh unto you.

There is no happiness nor satisfaction apart from God. We do not find God in geographical locations for God is a spirit and we must worship him in spirit and in truth. Experience is the primary emphasis of Christianity. It is not a book religion. Its central fact is salvation through Jesus Christ. The communion table is one of the best places to find Christ.

Paul also said, "Be steadfast." He encouraged us to have fellowship with the brethren. A Christian cannot be shut up in a compartment apart from the world. Love should abound and all differences disappear at the communion table. Let us therefore confess our sins, love the brethren and draw night unto God.

The congregation sang "Close to Thee."

Bishop Clippinger read the communion lesson. Rev. M. B. Klepinger led in a prayer dedication. Doctor Hohn and Reverend Klepinger presided at the communion table. Rev. Ambrose Aegerter, pastor of Wayne Avenue Evangelical Church, Revs. H. G. Clark, W. I. Underwood, E. R. Turner, George Duckwall and C. R. Smith distributed the elements. Mrs. Kaltenback played a group of familiar hymns while the elements were distributed. Following the distribution of bread the congregation sang the first verse of the hymn "Bread of Heaven, On Thee We Feed." We sang the second verse of the hymn following the distribution of the wine. Rev. D. T. Gregory, D.D., led in a prayer of dedication. The congregation sang "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Bishop Clippinger announced that Reverend Aegerter was a fraternal delegate from the Evangelical Church. He expressed the hope that the Evangelical United Brethren Church would be a reality soon.

Bishop Clippinger introduced the Memorial Service. Rev. G. W. Kopittke read the report of the Committee on Memoirs. (See Report No. 1.) The ministers' quartet sang "Beyond the Sunset." The quartet was accompanied by Mrs. Estella Petry. Memorial tributes were spoken to Rev. M. I. Comfort by Rev. N. L. Linebaugh; Mrs. A. P. Peden by Rev. C. S. Smith; Mrs. J. C. Goodrich by Mr. Fred Lammers; Mrs. W. T. Frank by Rev. R. B. Ditmyer; Mr. D. A.

Puterbaugh by Rev. J. B. Henry; Mrs. Mary Replogle Beachler by Dr. O. O. Arnold. It was called to the attention of the conference that Mrs. Katherine Schwab and Mrs. J. Luechaurer, widows of former ministers in Ohio German Conference had passed away during the year. Rev. Ivan Jenkins and E. S. Comrey were delegated to prepare memorial sketches. (See Reports No. 2-9.) Bishop Clippinger spoke words of appreciation for each of these lives. Following a period of silence in memory of these departed comrades Rev. J. A. Robinson led in prayer asking for God blessings upon their loved ones. The congregation sang "In the Sweet By and By." Dr. L. C. Weimer spoke in appreciation of the fact that a layman had been included in the Memorial Service. He expressed the hope that this be an annual custom.

The secretary called the roll. The bar of the conference was established as being the entire lower floor of the church.

Bishop Clippinger introduced Rev. J. W. Owen, D.D., Editor Emeritus of Sunday-school Literature. Doctor Hohn presented the following student pastors; Milford Ater, Antioch; Delmont Gordy, Otterbein Home; Maurice Smith, Nashville-Waterhouse; Paul Jefferis, Rossburg Circuit.

The program as printed was adopted and the committees were approved on motion.

Revs. E. R. Turner and R. B. Ditmyer were excused from the afternoon session on account of funerals. Revs. Ira Clark, J. B. Henry and J. D. Niswonder were excused from the Tuesday morning session to conduct funerals. Rev. J. C. Goodrich was excused from the remaining session on account of other duties.

Rev. M. B. Klepinger, host pastor, welcomed us and made announcements concerning successors records, meals, lodging, parking regulations and telephone.

A meeting of the Boundary and Finance Committee was called following lunch. Revs. A. S. Wolfe, R. V. Pelton, Harold Brown, Emerson Bragg, William Messmer and E. H. Nichols announced committee meetings during the noon hour. Mr. John Lyter announced that Publishing House accounts could be paid at the book table. Bishop Clippinger recommended the following books: "In a Minister's Work Shop" by Luccock; "The Larger Evangelism" by J. R. Mott; "Great Interviews of Jesus" by MacCartney and "Papa Was a Preacher."

We adjourned on motion. Benediction was prononced by Rev. J. W. Owen.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

We sang "Beautiful Words of Jesus" and "Father Almighty Grant Us Now." Dr. W. I. Underwood was our song leader and Mrs. Estella Petry was our pianist.

Rev. Howard James read the scripture and offered prayer.

Rev. Roger E. Montague, evangelist of Sandusky Conference, sang "I Will Pilot Thee." He was accompanied by Mrs. Montague. Rev. L. M. Hohn, D.D., Conference Superintendent, read his seventh annual report. The report was adopted on motion and recommendations were referred to the proper committee. (See Report No. 10.)

Bishop Clippinger introduced R. H. Mueller, D.D., secretary of Board of Christian Education, of Evangelical Church, Rev. O. T. Deever, secretary of Board of Christian Education of United Brethren Church, Rev. U. P. Hovermale, secretary of Home Mission and Church Erection. Rev. C. H. Keller, Ph.D., of Allegheny Conference and Mrs. Keller.

Dr. O. O. Arnold was excused for the remainder of the session in order that he might attend the sessions of Missouri Conference. It was voted to send greetings to Missouri Conference by Doctor Arnold.

Rev. M. B. Klepinger read the reports of the statistical secretary. He made some pertinent observations and comparisons. The report was adopted on motion. (See Report No. 11.) Bishop Clippinger made a statement concerning the Ohio Conferences. He said that, Southeast Ohio reported a net gain of 416 members, Sandusky 272; East Ohio 177; Miami 293. There are now in the state of Ohio a total of 98,633 members. There has been a total net increase in Ohio of 1,158 members. The net value of church property in Ohio $7,466,100; net value of parsonages $988,725. Total for all purposes for the year $1,920,330.

Rev. C. B. Boda read the report of conference treasurer. This was his nineteenth annual report. D. H. Keckler read the report of the Auditing Committee. This report was adopted on motion. (See Report No. 12.) The treasurer's report was adopted. (See Report No. 13.)

The report of Committee on Conference Relations was read by Rev. H. S. Brown. Report was adopted. See Report No. 14.)

Rev. Joe Hendrix read a partial report of the Committee on Boundary and Finance. Report was adopted. (See Report No. 34.)

A ballot was taken for the election of Conference Superintendent. Mr. E. A. Zehring and Wesley O. Clark were appointed as additional members on the Board of Tellers.

Report of Nominating Committee, Part I, was read by Rev. A. S. Wolfe. Report adopted and ordered printed. (See Report No. 15.)

Bishop Clippinger spoke of the series of misfortunes which had befallen the Harshman Church. An offering was taken to aid them in providing a new building.

Invitations for the next annual conference were received from Lagonda, Oak Street and New Madison.

Report on ballot for Conference Superintendent was given by Rev. Robert Copeland. Reverend Hohn, D.D., was declared elected. (See Report No. 16.)

We sang "Marvelous Grace."

Rev. and Mrs. Ambrose Aegerter of the Wayne Avenue Evangelical Church, Dayton, Ohio, were presented to the conference.

Rev. Reuben H. Mueller, D.D., was introduced to the conference. Doctor Mueller gave a challenging address on the subject, "They Were Expendable." He said that, in war you must spend men and materiel. I am not a pacifist but I know the horrors of war. We must be expendable for the kingdom of God. The Church lost its sacrificial spirit and its passion for souls. We have become satisfied and as a result we have become a minority. Our churches are full of people who are not willing to be expended but who are anxious that others do the vicarious suffering. If we are going to advance, if the kingdom is to progress some of us must die to some things. We can't do it with a revival meeting once a year. Send folks out where people are and our churches will be filled and our evangelistic services will take on power. Nothing much will happen to our churches, organizations, and services so long as we merely go on going through the motions of being Christians. We must be expendable. Let us lose ourselves in the service of our God for boys and girls.

We sang "Take my Life and Let It Be Consecrated Lord to Thee."

It was announced that the offering for Harshman Church amounted to $149.88.

Reverend Klepinger made announcement of the evening meal.

Reverends Wolfe, Pelton and Hendrix made announcement of committee meetings. A meeting of the conference trustees was called following adjournment. The chair called attention to the session for the evening and tomorrow.

Dr. O. T. Deever pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY EVENING SESSION

Mrs. Paul Kaltenbach played "The Pilgrim's Chorus" for our organ prelude. The congregation joined with the choir of Belmont Church in the processional hymn "Love Divine."

Bishop Clippinger spoke the invocation.

Congregation sang "Day Is Dying in the West."

We were led in responsive reading "The Principal of the Kingdom" from church hymnal.

The Belmont choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Server, sang "Jesus Friend of Sinners," by Grieg.

Rev. Joe Hendrix read a summary of the actions taken by the Miami Conference Council of Administration during the year. The conference approved the report. (See Report No. 17.)

Conference secretary read the report of the conference trustees which was adopted on motion. (See Report No. 18.)

Revs. C. R. Thomas and W. E. Jones, of Southeast Conference and Rev. C. B. White, of St. Joseph Conference were introduced.

Rev. Don Falkenberg Sr., secretary of Bible Meditation League spoke concerning The League and the Chaplain Corps of the Army and Navy. He told of the response of the men in armed forces to religious services. He stated that a recent check revealed that 22% of the men in armed forces attended religious services as contrasted with 8% among the civilian population. He also said that there were 2,000 service men in Bible classes every week. The League has distributed 317,000 pieces of literature in response to requests from September first to the eighteenth. He closed by telling of the need for chaplains in the Army and Navy.

We stood to sing, "I Love to Tell the Story."

Rev. Reuben H. Mueller, D.D., was presented. He addressed us, using as his subject "Evangelistic Christian Education." He stated that, he hopes that the merger of the Evangelical and United Brethren Churches would be consummated. He also stated that a divided Protestantism has resulted in a situation where paganism and heathenism are at our very doors. As evidence of our problem he cited the decline in Sunday-school attendance and enrollment. He said that we should drive the Church out of the fox-holes and on to the battle-ground. We need to recover the saving power of Jesus Christ in our teaching ministry in the Church by a combination of evangelism and religious education. These are not competitors but supplements. Our generation knows about the Bible but it doesn't know the Bible. This makes for people who lack stability. The preacher as the head teacher in the Church should prepare the soil of boys' and girls' minds for the seed of God's word. He told of a program of training and evangelism he had used with great effect to establish people in the faith.

Rev. M. B. Klepinger made an announcement concerning lodging and meals.

The benediction was pronounced by Doctor Mueller.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

Prelude "Ante Cantible" was played by Mrs. Paul Kaltenback.

The Bishop called us to order by reading from Psalm 122.

The congregation sang "There's Sunshine in My Soul" and "I Am Listening," Doctor Underwood directed.

Rev. Stanley Forkner brought a devotional address on the subject "His Abiding Presence." "His abiding presence is the healing balm and guiding light to direct us in this day. We need the power of his presence each day. When we are conscious of his presence it makes a difference in the way we live. His presence also gives peace. There is purpose, power and peace in his abiding presence." We closed the devotional period by singing "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee."

Rev. C. M. Bowman, D.D., superintendent of Southeast Ohio Conference and Revs. Evan D. Jones, Rockridge; J. E. Houston, Circleville; and M. V. Holcomb, Bremen; all of the Southeast Ohio Conference and President J. R. Howe, Ph.D., of Otterbein College, were introduced and extended the courtesies of the conference.

Bishop Clippingr spoke of the General Conference to be held in Westerville, Ohio next May.

Rev. Charles Messmer was appointed to serve on the Board of Tellers.

The ballot for Conference Officials, Part I, was taken.

President J. R. Howe, Ph.D., spoke on "Otterbein's Centennial and the Church." He brought a word of greeting from the college and reported that the student body numbered 357, an increase of 73 or approximately 30 per cent. We have 108 boys on the campus. Otterbein College now offers a Christian service minor designed to prepare students for leadership in local churches. He also extended an invitation to attend the General Conference.

He said that Otterbein College has made a great contribution to the Church. We are determined to make our record better in the future. Two hundred forty-seven active itinerant Elders in the United Brethren Church have received some portion of their training in Otterbein College. The Church established Otterbein to train leaders. We shall continue to train consecrated leaders. We come to ask your prayers, gifts, and interests in Otterbein. Many of you have already started on the Centennial Fund. I bid you God speed. He told of an envelope of literature concerning the fund. You are entitled to know that Otterbein College has regarded the money people have given as a sacred stewardship. The Centennial Fund of $625,000 is to be used for a new library, to meet certain deficits, a heating plant, and new endowment. He closed by stating that the world needs more than men with intelligent cleverness if civilization is to endure.

Bishop Clippinger urged an active committee in the local churches to raise the Centennial Fund. He urged that there be a Centennial Committee for each local church and suggested several methods of raising the fund in the local church.

Dr. W. N. Roberts moved and Rev. E. R. Turner seconded a motion that the Bishop and Conference Superintendent appoint a Conference College Centennial Committee.

Revs. C. F. Lutz, Southeast Ohio Conference and M. A. Wagner, East Ohio Conference were introduced and extended the courtesies of the conference.

Rev. Roy D. Miller, professor in Bonebrake Seminary and a member of this conference, spoke concerning Bonebrake Seminary. He contrasted life and regulations in Bonebrake Seminary now with 64 years ago. He stated that the present enrollment of 112 is the greatest in the history of the school. Increased enrollment has made for a crowded dormitory, library and classroom facilities. He announced that the Rev. Harold Platz had been added to the teaching staff. He stated the philosophy of the Seminary to be, "We search for truth wherever we find it and try to build it into the living and thinking of our students. We want to send our men out with an evangelistic passion, to know the Bible as a living book, to have a scientific understanding of man and God and to know workable and practical methods." He also stated that the Seminary had operated on a balanced budget since 1939 and would be out of debt by next summer. There is no bonded or mortgaged indebtedness now. He suggested the following needs: new library bulding, chapel, housing facilities for students, and scholarship endowment funds. He said you can support us by getting us more students, by ministers using our reading library, by using members of faculty in local churches, suggesting prospective contributors, paying benevolences in full, using pictures of the Seminary, and remembering us in your prayers and devotions.

Mrs. L. O. Shawen spoke for the Bonebrake Seminary Auxiliary. (See Report No. 19.)

Doctor Roberts spoke concerning the enrollment at the Seminary. He stated that 26 of the 28 conferences and one foreign conference were represented in the student body. Envelopes were distributed for members to the Seminary Auxiliary.

Rev. Robert Copeland read a report to the Board of Tellers in the election of Conference Officials, Part I. (See Report No. 20.) Those receiving the highest number of votes were declared elected.

Mrs. Robert Copeland, president of the Miami Branch, asked support for the fall institutes.

Dr. C. W. Brewbaker was introduced and urged us to greater evangelistic endeavor. Rev. Kemper G. McComb, D.D., Executive Secretary of the Dayton and Montgomery County Council of Churches, was introduced. Rev. C. Willard Fetter was presented. Reverend Fetter comes to the Dayton and Montgomery County Council of Churches as a pastor of transient population.

Bishop Clippinger gave instructions for selecting nominees for delegates to General Conference. He urged pastors to use care in conducting the elections in the local church and to see that all Disciplinary requirements are observed.

Reverends Wolfe, Charles Messmer, and Pelton announced committee meetings for the noon hour.

Rev. M. B. Klepinger announced the noon meal. It was announced that the Seminary Auxiliary would meet at 12:45 in the Sunday-school building.

The conference adjourned on motion to meet in separate groups to ballot for nominees for General Conference delegates.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. E. Houston.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

We sang "The Solid Rock" and "Higher Ground."

Rev. Harry Sings read from Matthew 17 and led in prayer.

Fred L. Dennis, D.D., Bishop of the Northwest Area and former member of the Miami Conference was called to the platform. He spoke briefly concerning the work of his district. There was a gain of 810 members in his area for the year and a total membership of 110,000.

The journal for Tuesday was read and approved.

Bishop Clippinger spoke of the proposed union of Evangelical and United Brethren Churches. He said that much progress had been made. He told of the work of the commissions on church union covering a period of ten years. The proposed plan of union comes before the General Conference in May for a vote. The combined church will approximate 800,000 members. Bishop Dennis also spoke of his respect and admiration for the Evangelical Church. He said that the Northwest District anticipated the union and expressed a conviction that the Commission on Church Union had sought to adopt the strong points of each communion. Dr. D. T. Gregory made announcements concerning the denominational study book "My Church Faces Union." Copies of this book were sold together with "Worship Pathways."

The report of the reading course faculty was read by Rev. Emerson D. Bragg. It was approved on motion. (See Report No. 21.)

Rev. A. S. Wolfe read a report of the Nominating Committee, Part II. The report was approved and ordered printed. (See Report No. 22.)

The report of the Committee on Elders' Orders was read by Rev. C. R. Smith. The report was approved. (See Report No. 23.)

Rev. E. H. Nichols read the report of the Committee on Candidates for the Ministry. On motion the report was approved. (See Report No. 24.)

Rev. George Smith of the Faith Lutheran Church of Dayton was introduced and extended the courtesies of the conference.

Report of the Board of Christian Education was read by the Rev. J. B. Henry. Report was approved. (See Report No. 25.)

A partial report of the ballot for nominees for ministerial delegates to General Conference was read by Rev. Robert Copeland. (See Report No. 26.)

Rev. J. R. Overmiller, D.D., superintendent of the Otterbein Home, and Rev. A. D. Smith, D.D., field secretary of the Otterbein Home, were introduced to the conference. Doctor Overmiller spoke on the subject "Otterbein Home Serves." He announced that the Christmas offering for the Home last year amounted to $156,000 which enabled the treasurer to pay the last of the debt on the Home. He spoke of some of the internal problems of the Home. There are many demands for admission to the Home. People need a home more than anything else today. We need some improvements at the Home, such as a new boys' hall, (our present building is 100 years old), a sewage disposal plant, a new well, a place to play, five boys' cottages, and more helpers. We appeal for your prayers and backing in this work.

A partial report of the laymen's group to select nominees for delegates to the General Conference was made by Wesley Clark. (See Report No. 36.)

Rev. S. P. McNaught, D.D., superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League spoke on the subject "The Anti-Saloon League at Work." He said that we face a serious situation. Thousands of our young men and women have learned to drink liquor during this war period. He spoke of the effort being made to unite all temperance forces. He said that 5,000 high school boys and girls in Southern Ohio had studied the Quiz Book last year and that we are contemplating a campaign to secure signatures to total abstainence pledges. We are attempting to secure restrictive legislation. The Church should help to build public sentiment against the legalized liquor business.

The chair made an announcement concerning the session this evening and tomorrow morning.

Miss Alice Bell announced the W. M. A. Board meeting to be held at the Dayton First Church, October 12-16.

We adjourned to separate conventions to select nominees for delegates to General Conference.

Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Dennis.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION

Mrs. Paul Kaltenback played an organ prelude "Adoremus."

Mr. A. T. Martin, president of the Miami Conference Brotherhood, presided. The congregation sang "O Zion Haste" with Rev. W. H. Sinks as song leader.

Mr. Harold Mayer, a layman of the Dayton Otterbein Church, read from Matthew 9:27-38 and offered prayer.

A quartet of girls from the Wagner Chapel Church sang "Lift Up Thine Eyes" and "Take Up Thy Cross." Members of the quartet were Wilma Robinson, Ann Underwood, Evelyn Lamb, and Vera Appenzeller. Barbara Parks accompanied them. Mr. Martin spoke briefly of the work of the Conference Brotherhood Organization and urged participation in the observance of Men's Day, January 21.

Rev. W. R. Montgomery, D.D., Director of Adult Christian Education of the United Brethren Church, addressed the conference on the subject "The Church's Answer to the Savior's Concern for Today's World." The commission to the church is a divine commission. We are receiving that commission anew today. People are expressing a fear of peace. This is a new fear. The war has destroyed many things, but there are some things which are indestructible. These are the things which God has commissioned us to preach. Jesus took his work seriously. We can do no less. The response to the divine commission has ben evidenced in a full benevolence budget and the lives of ministers and laymen. We can do what we want to do.

Rev. Harvey Hahn told of the need for funds for the work of the Conference Brotherhood Organization. An offering was taken for this work. Mrs. Kaltenback played the offertory.

The Wagner Chapel girls quartet sang "God is Love."

Rev. Ralph Tinsley, Conference Adult Director, suggested that the present officers of the Conference Brotherhood be retained for another year. Colonel H. E. Meyers moved and W. C. Reichert seconded that the present officers be retained. Motion carried.

Professor Roy D. Miller addressed the conference on the subject, "The Challenge of Human Inter-Action." He said that many thinking churchmen are distributed. We have prayed for 1900 years "Thy Will Be Done" but it has not yet come to pass. Apparently we have not been giving God an adequate chance to answer our prayer. Many of the problems in our life are essentially difficulties in human relations. He suggested four such problems; the problem of labor-industrial relations, liquor, race, and war. This is because we have failed to meet the challenge of human inter-action. We haven't learned to live together, to use our differences to enrich our lives rather than to divide us. Most of our great evils are acquired in social groups rather than in individual contacts. He suggested three things Christians need to do:

1. The Church must become better and better informed.
2. Have a more zealous program of personal evangelism.
3. Establish the kingdom of God in the community.

"The church is not an island in the ocean of life on which a few people are saved, but it is a part of the ocean itself." We live in a world of change. The church can follow along behind or it can guide and be a militant force in this change. We should attack the problems we face as God's co-workers.

Dr. O. T. Deever pronounced the benediction.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

Mr. Paul Kaltenback played the prelude "Agnus Dei."

We were led in the call to worship and the invocation by Bishop Clippinger.

Dr. W. I. Underwood led us in singing "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult."

Rev. R. W. Tinsley brought a devotional message on the subject "Our Privilege." He contrasted Matt. 5:13-16; Acts 4:13. He said that Christians should be lights in the dark world. We may do this by living a good life along the road of life. Patience, kindliness, doing small tasks well are important. This light is evidenced by revealing Christian faith in the dark hours of life's experiences. Christian faith at its best is the most dynamic force in the universe. This light may also be revealed through simple kindly ministry, a bouquet in a sick room, a kindly word, a prayer for the discouraged and simple service. He closed by reading the stimulating poem "I Want My Life to Tell."

The ministers' quartet sang "Go Tell Some One About Jesus."

Secretary read the roll.

Rev. W. E. Price, Secretary of East Ohio Conference, was introduced and granted the courtesies of the conference.

Rev. B. F. Lamb, D.D., Secretary of Ohio Council of Churches and Religious Education was presented to the conference. He said that he would not make a formal address but would like to make some announcements, namely: That the new address of the Council is 63 S. High Street, Columbus 15, Ohio. He urged churches to conduct V-Day services and Prince of Peace Declamation Contests. He urged attendance at county peace meetings to be conducted October 23 to November 3. He stated that Miss Dorothy Wolcott had been selected as Director of Week-Day Schools of Religion for Ohio. Miss Wolcott is to help organize schools and select teachers. He spoke of the Mission to Teachers in Columbus, Oct 10-12.

A ballot for ministerial nominees for delegates to General Conference was taken.

A partial report of the election of lay nominees for delegates to General Conference was read by Wesley O. Clark. (See Report No. 36.)

A ballot for lay nominees for delegates to General Conference was taken.

Report of the tellers on the ballot for ministerial nominees for delegates to General Conference was read by Rev. Robert Copeland. (See Report No. 26.)

It was moved, properly supported and passed, that 21,000 ballots be printed for the election of delegates to General Conference. It was moved, supported and passed, that the names on the ballots be rotated and that name of the church instead of the address of nominees be used.

Rev. J. B. Showers, D.D., Publishing Agent of the United Brethren Church addressed the conference, speaking of his relationship of years past with the Belmont Church. He introduced Dr. J. Gordon Howard, a member of Miami Conference, who is Editor of Sunday School Publications, Col. H. E. Meyers, Dr. L. C. Weimer and Rev. R. A. Powell, D.D., of Sandusky Conference who are members of Board of Trustees of United Brethren Publishing House. He said we need a rebirth of faith in United Brethren Church. He reminded us that Zion's Advocate, first published in 1839, was the first literary effect of the United Brethren Church. The Zion's Advocate was a venture of Miami Conference. He announced the Telescope quota winners of the conference and stated that Dr. Paul Herrick was a member of the Century Club. He presented our conference treasurer a dividend check from the Publishing House in the amount of $672.00. This money will be used for ministerial relief. Doctor Showers told the conference of two short church histories which could be used to suplement the denominational study book for 1944-1945. These are "A Short History of United Brethren Church," by J. W. Owen and "History Evangelical Church" by Bishop Spreng.

The report of the Rural Church Commissoon was read by Rev. Joe Hendrix. Report approved. (See Report No. 27.)

The ballot for Conference Officials, Part II was taken.

Supplemental report of the Committee on Conference Relations was read by Rev. H. S. Brown. Report was approved. (See Report No. 14a.)

Secretary read a resolution concerning the return of Bishop Clippinger to the Central Area for next quadrennium. Rev. Harvey Clark was asked to preside, the resolution was adopted. (See Report No. 28.) Bishop Clippinger spoke his appreciation for the action. He said that he felt at home among us. "The Church has done more for me than I have done for the Church." Col. H. E. Meyers spoke of his twenty-four years as a trustee of the United Brethren Publishing House.

A memorial to General Conference concerning retirement age for general offices was read and adopted. (See Report No. 29.)

Rev. M. B. Klepinger moved, Rev. Joe Hendrix seconded, that a committee be appointed to report one year hence, to consider changing date for annual conference.

Report of the tellers in the election of lay nominees for delegates to General Conference was read by Wesley Clark. (Report No. 36.)

It was announced that the Otterbein Home Auxiliary would meet at 12:45 o'clock.

John Lyter made an announcement concerning Publishing House accounts.

Reverends Bragg, William Messmer and Klepinger made announcements. Bishop Clippinger spoke of the shortage of ministers in the conference. He also stated that he has application blanks for membership in the Ministerial Pension Plan. All active ministers are required to join by January 1, 1945 or forfeit any privileges of the plan.

We were adjourned on motion. Benediction was pronounced by Dr. R. A. Powell.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Bishop Clippinger called us to order as we sang "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less." Rev. W. H. Sinks was the song leader.

Rev. Kenneth Kraft read scripture and offered prayer.

Rev. W. E. Snyder, D.D., Editor of Religious Telescope and Professor Harold Platz, recently elected professor in Bonebrake Seminary, were introduced and granted the courtesies of the conference.

A ballot for lay nominees for delegates to General Conference was taken.

Rev. Robert Copeland read the report of tellers in the election of Conference Officials, Part II. Persons named were declared elected to the offices indicated. (See Report No. 30.)

The report of the Yale School of Alcoholic Studies was presented by Revs. E. E. Burtner and Philip Deever. Reverend Burtner said that the school was held under direction of the Department of Applied Physiology. It has two purposes. 1. Full time research on all the problems of alcohol. 2. Spread their findings through the school publications and clinics. The problem of alcohol is a complex problem; there are at least twenty-five sub-problems one of which is, why do people drink? 40% of the people do so because alcohol quickly and easily releases a person from his anxiety. Here is where the church can help. Every person has three desires, to be loved, to be admired, and to be obeyed. This often results in frustration and anxiety hence an emotional problem. It cannot be solved by legalistic means. Christian faith gives us a means of managing our anxieties.

Reverend Deever made five observations concerning the study. 1. Physological aspects are not as important as physological and sociological aspects. 2. 40% of alcoholism is symptomatic drinking, (a symptom of a deeper problem). 3. 60% arise from social pressure (social drinking). Social control and pressure must underlie legal control. There are between 2,400,000 and 2,800,000 excessive drinkers in United States of which 600,000 are chronic alcoholics. 4. Marriage and alcohol are incompatible. This is statement of Sociologist not a Religionist. 5. The real problem is not alcohol but life. Rev. E. H. Dailey spoke of the value of this school and expressed a hope that at least two representatives from each Bishop's area might be selected to attend next year.

The Bishop made an appointment of tellers for election of General Conference delegates (See Report No. 31), the change of date of annual conference (See Report No. 32) and Otterbein College Centennial Committee. (See Report No. 33.)

Mr. W. O. Clark read partial report of ballot for lay nominees for delegates to General Conference. (See Report No. 36.)

A ballot was taken for election of lay nominees delegates for General Conference.

Rev. D. T. Gregory, D.D., addressed the conference upon the theme, "Facing Realities." He distributed leaflets showing some of the victories and challenges of the United Brethren Church. The benevolence budget of the denomination and the benevolence quota of Miami Conference have been paid 105%. This has made more money available for kingdom interests. We need to face reality in regards to our finances. Our increase has not been in proportion to increased income. This seems to be following a trend similar to the period after the last war when benevolent giving decreased even in days of plenty. This is evidence of a spirit of selfishness. We need also to face the reality of soul winning. Our church has been showing a decline in number of converts. One-third of all converts never join the church. Three-fifths as many people are dropped without certificate as are received by confession of faith. Soul winning should be a concern of a layman and minister alike. The first step toward evangelism is a dedicated church.

The report of the Commttee of Boundary and Finance was read by Rev. J. P. Hendrix. The report was approved. (See Report No. 34.)

Rev. Wm. K. Messmer read the report of the Committee on Pastors' Records. Report approved. (See Report No. 35.)

Mr. W. O. Clark read the final report of election of lay nominees for delegates to General Conference. (See Report No. 36.)

Report of the Policy Committee was read by Rev. Walter Miranda. It was approved as amended. (See Report No. 37.)

Rev. R. B. Ditmyer read the report of the conference registrar. It was approved on motion. (See Report No. 38.)

Rev. C. S. Smith read the report of the Historical Committee. Report was approved. (See Report No. 39.)

Rev. Chas. Messmer read the report of the Committee on Resolutions. Report was approved. (See Report No. 40.)

Dr. L. M. Hohn spoke of his appreciation for his re-election as Conference Superintendent he stated that there had been a fine spirit on the part of delegates toward the Stationing Committee. We will have some extremely difficult situations to face in the new year but we can achieve if we trust in Him.

The Bishop again spoke of shortage of preachers in the conference this year.

The Journal for Wednesday and Thursday was approved without reading.

Bishop Clippinger stated he wished to meet the pastors and their wives following adjournment.

We adjourned with Bishop Clippinger leading us in a closing prayer and benediction.

THURSDAY EVENING SESSION

The final session of the one hundred thirty-fifth meeting of the Miami Annual Conference began with Mrs. Paul Kaltenback playing "Andante con Moto" by Schubert as our prelude. We were further led into the spirit of worship as the Belmont choir sang an introit under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Server.

Following the processional hymn, "The Church's One Foundation." Bishop A. R. Clippinger led in the invocation.

The congregation joined in singing, "Father Almighty, Grant Us Now."

The Rev. John Niswonder, D.D., read some selected scripture portions from the booklet prepared by the late Dr. Samuel F. Daugherty entitled "The Way of Life" following which he led us in prayer.

An offering was taken to assist the Harshman Church in its building project. Mrs. Kaltenback played the offertory number.

Mrs. Ruth Server directed the choir of the Belmont Church in singing Fred Waring's arrangement of "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Bishop Clippinger announced that he had chosen, "Obedience to the Will of God" as the subject for his annual conference sermon. He said that obedience is a cardinal virtue and a fundamental law of the Christian's life. Obedience is better than sacrifice. We live in a universe of law. Paul was obedient to the heavenly vision. His conversion experience became his Magna Charta and his polar star. Not all ambassadors of God receive their commission in a flash of unusual divine power. He spoke of the call of Moses, Elijah, Matthew, James, John, Moody, Grenfell, Cadman and Billy Sunday. God continues to lay his hands on men today. Most frequently he calls young men so they may have a whole life time of service. He spoke of his own religious experience in his home and the Church. "I received my call through the Church." He made a plea that the channels of the Church might be opened to young people. He also stated that Paul was faithful through all of his life, he was a great missionary and a faithful pastor. Paul was an educated man, astute and awake. People need practical application of the Gospel. Paul lived and preached in one of the darkest eras in the world's history. In the face of evil he wanted to preach the Gospel. Wicked Rome was an open door of opportunity to Paul. He was not luke-warm in regards to the Gospel. The Bishop closed by saying "After the peace I expect the greatest period of opportunity for the Gospel." He suggested three steps to Christian progress: 1. dedication, 2. obedience to the Will of God, 3. sacrificial spirit.

We sang, "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken."

Once more it was called to our attention that young men coming into the ministry were very few. There were no candidates for ordination although it was announced that John A. Clippinger had been ordained by his father on June 18. Bruce Herrick, son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Herrick of Dayton, First Church, was called to the platform and presented his annual conference license. This young man represents the third generation of United Brethren preachers.

The report of the stationing committee was read. (See Report No. 41.)

The benediction was pronounced by Doctor Hohn, superintendent of the conference.

This session of annual conference was characterized by much voting, hot weather, short speeches, genuine hospitality on the part of the host church and a fine spirit on the part of all who attended. The finances of the conference were in good shape which was a cause for gratitude although there was an expression of sorrow that it had taken a terrible world war to create this condition. The need for an outpouring of the divine spirit was felt in the lack of young men as candidates for the ministry, as well as the rather small net increase in the membership of the conference. We left the conference with a feeling of optimism for the year ahead and with confidence that there were no problems to be faced which could not be solved by a more complete consecration to and a faith in God.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

Once more we meet to pay tribute to our departed fellow-workers. Our heart-felt sympathy goes out to those who remain to mourn their departure. We are assured by His word that the Lord is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him. It is therefore with confidence that we place them in his keeping. Knowing that He who regards the fall of the sparrow is not unmindful of their labors and their constant search after Him and His will, that He has duly rewarded them. We are assured that they who have only seen through a glass darkly now behold Him face to face and know Him as they were known. We miss the accustomed faces but heaven is enriched by our loss. Others more intimately acquainted will pay individual tribute to each of the departed.

Rev. N. L. Linebaugh to Rev. M. I. Comfort; Rev. L. G. Ludwick to Mrs. A. P. Peden; Mr. Fred Lammers to Mrs. J. C. Goodrich; Rev. R. B. Dittmeyer to Mrs. W. T. Frank; Rev. J. B. Henry to Mr. D. A. Puderbaugh.

Report No. 2

REV. M. I. COMFORT

It was on August 28, 1866 that there was born a son to Ithamar and Susannah Comfort, and they gave that son the name of Merrit Ithamar. The place of birth was near Elcho, Ontario, Canada. He was one of a family of six, five brothers and one sister. For almost 75 years this family group of children was unbroken by death, until nearly two years ago when the eldest brother was taken.

As he was growing to manhood, the desire to preach the gospel came to him with such force that he was unable to refuse the Christ whom he served. But realizing that he did not possess the necessary educational qualifications for such a vocation, he set himself to the task of correcting his limited education. At the age of twelve he passed the entrance examination to high school but did not enter until ten years later, after the death of his father. Perhaps his over-enthusiasm to acquire an education, or being ill-advised by church officials, led him to make some mistakes. Having completed his high school work, he entered Union Biblical Seminary in 1891. But after one year he realized he needed college work, and he left the Seminary and went to Otterbein University, graduating two years later. Going back to his conference in Canada, but needing a theological training, he came back to the Seminary and completed the course in 1900, paying for this with the money derived from the sale of the farm which his father had given him. One need not be surprised at his loyalty to the College and the Seminary. He stood and toiled for an educated ministry.

His was a long and faithful ministry. It began in the old United Brethren Ontario Conference, in Canada. In it he served first as an assistant pastor on Gainsborough Circuit, in which circuit was his home church. This relationship he sustained one year. Then came Scotia Circuit, and finally Berlin, each of which he served two years. Upon the completion of his Seminary work he transferred his membership to Miami Conference, serving in order the following places: Cherry Grove, Hamilton, Eaton, Ithica Circuit, Caylor Chapel-Abbottsville, Belmont, Miami Chapel and finally Vandalia.

During the conference year now closing, the Official Board at Vandalia made him officially the associate pastor. He undertook and accomplished a canvass of the two hundred houses in the "Vandalia Homes" project, and visited every home in two days and tabulated the church preferences of every family. His counsel and guidance were ever so helpful. His vision of the church at Vandalia was a continual challenge to his pastor. He was not considered a master preacher. His strength lay in his remarkable abilities as a pastor. His personal evangelism in the home won many to an acceptance of the Christ. He was ever ready to serve, as his strength would permit. Quietly he slipped down into the evening glow of life's sunset, serving to the end. Thus after completing forty-three years of ordained ministry, as the sun was slowly rising on Tuesday, May 2, 1944, he entered into that "Perfect Rest" which comes to those who have labored faithfully.

Funeral services were conducted from the Vandalia Church with the pastor in charge. Conference Superintendent L. M. Hohn read the Scripture and offered prayer. The sermon was delivered by Bishop A. R. Clippinger. Burial was made in the Bear Creek cemetery near Dayton, Ohio.

MRS. A. P. PEDEN

Bishop Clippinger said in his communion sermon that Christianity is not a book religion, it is a life. This was given a practical demonstraton in the life of Mrs. A. P. Peden. I came to appreciate the spiritual qualities in the life of this woman through many years of association with her. Through the years of fellowship and association with her I came to admire and respect the noble qualities in her life. She lived in such a way as to impress the spiritual qualities of her life upon her friends.

Mrs. Peden was an appreciative Christian. This appreciation expressed itself in many ways. One caught from her a faith in the goodness of God.

Mrs. Peden was the mother of two sons, both of whom died in infancy. Later she and her husband took into their home a daughter Carol whom they reared to maturity. This was but another evidence of the quality and graciousness of her life.

Funeral services were conducted from the church at Bevis by the writer and her husband, Rev. A. P. Peden, in accordance with her wishes. Her body rests in the beautiful cemetery which adjoins the church at Bevis.

LIZABETH GOODRICH

Lizabeth Goodrich was born in Woodbridge, California on the 24th day of April in the year 1876. She was the eighth of nine girls born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard White Williams. She died on the 25th day of May in Cincinnati, Ohio, having attained the age of sixty-eight years, one month and a day.

On the 25th day of September in the year 1900, she united in marriage with John Caldwell Goodrich, who, at the time of their marriage was pastor of the United Brethren Church of which she was a member.

For over forty-three years of her married life she labored beside her husband, supplementing his work in the Christian ministry in the states of California, Washington, Oregon, Ohio and Kentucky. She worked among the young people of the church and loved to sing in the choir.

I first came to know Mrs. Goodrich about twenty years ago when Reverend Goodrich was pastor of Willey Memorial Church in Cincinnati. In April of 1929 she became a member of the Clifton Church under the pastorate of Rev. W. I. Underwood.

She was blessed with a poised and balanced judgment; a gentleness and cheerfulness of spirit that enabled her to look upon life's joys and sorrows, its buffets and rewards with equal thanks.

During the last year of her illness when she must have sensed her malady could not be stayed by the skills of modern medicine or surgery, I saw no perceptible change in her normal cheerful philosophy and outlook upon life.

She loved the comforting words of the 14th chapter of St. John's Gospel above all other Scripture and the two hymns she loved above all others were "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning" and "He Was Nailed to the Cross."

She is survived by her husband, John Caldwell Goodrich; one son, John Richard Goodrich, Principal of Lincoln School, Dayton, Ohio, and his wife; one granddaughter, May Lizabeth Goodrich; one grandson, Charles Caldwell Goodrich of the United States Ferry Command of the Aviation Forces in Africa, and numerous relatives on the West Coast.

Funeral services were held in Cincinnati, on the 30th day of May and were conducted by Reverend W. I. Underwood, pastor of Clifton Church.

She was buried in Arlington Memorial Cemetery, Mt. Healthy, Ohio.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

Report No. 5

MRS. PEARL FRANK

Mrs. Pearl Frank, beloved wife of Rev. W. T. Frank departed this life Saturday June 24th, 1944. At the time of her passing she was a patient in a Bridgeport, Connecticut Hospital. Mrs. Frank was one of seven daughters born to Frank and Mary Petry Hart. She was born at Hillgrove, Darke County, Ohio, April 16, 1872, and while quite young her family moved to a farm near Union City, where she grew to womanhood. In this community she attended the Bennett District School. At the age of thirteen she was converted at a revival service in the Union City United Brethren Church, and continued active Christian work until passing.

On April 16th, 1891, she was married to Rev. W. T. Frank, then a young minister in the United Brethren Church, and together they served faithfully many pastoral charges in Miami Conference, Illinois and Florida Conferences. Among the many churches where Mrs. Frank is remembered as an active Christian worker are the Oak Street, East Dayton and Southern Hills Churches, Dayton, Ohio; Brookville, Farmersville, Middletown, all in Ohio, Van Oren, Illinois, and Tampa, Florida. The last pastoral appointment where Mrs. Frank presided in the manse was at Eaton, Ohio, and upon retiring from the active ministry Mrs. Frank and Reverend Frank moved to Union City where they built a beautiful and cozy home and lived retired from the active ministry, a very active and happy life covering five years. During their period of residence in Union City one of the happy days in the life of Mrs. Frank was the occasion of her Golden Wedding anniversary when a service was held in the church at Union City with Bishop A. R. Clippinger presiding in a beautiful and impressive ceremony, and at which time Mrs. Frank received from her husband a beautiful gold wedding ring and the service was witnessed by her son and daughter.

In all of the pastoral charges served Mrs. Frank was a valued helpmate to her husband, giving liberally of her time and energy in the various activities of the Church as a consecrated devoted Christian worker. Upon her return to Union City she continued her church activity, including Sunday school and the Missionary Society. As late as the last revival meeting in the Union City Church a fine young lady had become impressed in the meetings, then came to Mrs. Frank for direction, finally yielding her life to Christ and dedicated her life kneeling in the home with Mrs. Frank directing the thinking with a beautiful and helpful prayer of consecration. The young lady remains in the Church to carry on the work. This an example of her consecrated life and a recorded event in many other churches and at other times in the Union City Church. Her sudden death, while visiting her daughter at Bridgeport, Conn., deeply shocked the entire Union City community.

Mrs. Frank is survived by her husband, Rev. W. T. Frank; her daughter, Mrs. Myrna Michael; one son, Paul, a furniture merchant at Dayton, Ohio; another son Omer died at Akron, Ohio, 13 years ago from an injury received in World War I. There are six grandchildren and the following sisters: Mrs. D. A. Puderbaugh; Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. M. B. Armstrong, all of Union City; and Mrs. Preston Onkst of Greenville, Ohio; one sister, Mrs. Susan Scholl died a few months ago and another sister, Mrs. Acha Strong, several years ago. There are two deceased brothers. On Wednesday, June 28th, memorial services were held at the Union City Church, with Dr. L. M. Hohn, Conference Superintendent, and Dr. D. T. Gregory, Secretary of the Board of Administration, bringing impressive and appropriate messages. Rev. Harld Brown of East Dayton, and Rev. R. B. Ditmyer, both of whom were converted under the preaching and work of Mrs. and Rev. Frank had part in the services.

Burial was in the mausoleum in the Greenville Cemetery.

God hath not promised skies,—always blue;
Flower strewn pathways all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain,
But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

MR. D. A. PUDERBAUGH

The cause of Christ has been blessed greatly through the ministry of laymen. In this memorial service we depart from the custom of tribute only to ministers and their wives, for Mr. Puderbaugh was a layman. So closely was he associated with the life of Miami Conference that it is proper we should do this.

His wisdom as an administrator was available to the conference as a trustee for many years. No one among us would have rejoiced more than Mr. Puderbaugh had he lived to know that our quota for the Ministerial Pension Endowment Fund was fully paid, for he had been its chief lay promoter in our conference.

He was by occupation a school teacher. He was greatly interested in children. In his own church he helped make plans for winning more children. Not only did he love children, but they also loved him.

Mr. Puderbaugh did the cause of Christ great good. He lived a kindly good life. In him was no ill will. Christ set the standard, "By this shall all men know that you are my disciples if you have love one toward another." Mr. Puderbaugh wore with honor this badge of Christian discipleship.

Our tribute today to Mr. D. A. Puderbaugh becomes a challenge to others to have a share in the ministry of laymen.

MRS. MARY REPLOGLE BEACHLER

Mrs. Replogle was not so well known among the younger generation of this conference which is a reminder that memory soon fades. I met this woman a number of times and recall her as a good housekeeper which is no small task. I knew her to be a faithful pastor's wife and a friendly, kindly person. I have three distinct recollections of her in three different relationships which remind me that she was a person who had learned how to adjust to life. Her life is a reminder to us all of the immortality of service.

MRS. KATHERINE SCHWAB

Mrs. Katherine Schwab, the widow of the Rev. J. F. Schwab, passed away in her Batavia, Ohio home, early in the morning of January 19, 1944.

As a pastor's wife she was active in church life, serving with her husband in many churches of the Ohio German Conference. Among the later churches were Cincinnati, Dayton First, Dayton Second and Hamilton Ninth Street. Upon retiring in 1921 Rev. and Mrs. Schwab made their home in Batavia, Ohio, where Rev. Schwab died in 1929.

After his death Mrs. Schwab's sister, Mrs. Wolf, came to live with her. The sister died some three years ago and since that time Mrs. Schwab has lived alone.

Mrs. Schwab was a never-tiring individual. Usually she attempted more than she was able to do. In recent years she delighted in accompanying her pastor to conference, conventions and the like. In her passing another stalwart character has gone from us.

The funeral services were held in the Batavia Church with her pastor in charge and bringing the message. Internment was in the Batavia cemetery.

ANNA LEUCHAUER

Anna M. Luechauer, wife of the late Rev. J. G. Luechauer, and daughter of Melchoir and Christena Betscher, was born at Bevis, near Cincinnati, Ohio, November 1, 1863, and died July 27, 1944, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. H. Martin, of Forest Hills, Cornelius, Oregon. She was endowed with a beautiful personality, and was a diligent worker and exceptional helpmate to her pastor husband.

June 9, 1885, she was married to Rev. J. G. Luechauer and shared the joys and sorrows of a minister's life for over forty years. At the retirement of her husband from the active ministry, they went to the Pacific Coast to reside with a daughter. Brother Luechauer died fifteen months later.

Mrs. Leuchauer faithfully served with her husband during his active ministry at the following places: Hamilton, Ohio, where they built the Ninth Street Church; Cincinnati Second Church, at which time they also served the Clough Church and began a mission at Cheviot which developed into the present Cheviot Church; Batavia; Cleveland First Church; Otisco, Indiana, and Old Otterbein Church, Baltimore, Maryland. Brother Leuchauer also served as superintendent of the former Ohio German Conference.

Rev. H. C. Schiering, a nephew of the deceased, and pastor of the Parma Church, East Ohio Conference, officiated at the funeral services assisted by Rev. E. S. Comrey, of Second Church of Cincinnati. Mrs. Edna Redlin of Hamilton, a niece, sang. Interment was made at Bevis cemetery, beside her husband.

Report No. 10

SUPERINTENDEND'S REPORT

Dear Brethren of the Miami Conference. Greetings to you in the name of our Lord even Jesus.

It is with the sense of great gratitude, yet in the spirit of humility that I bring to you this my seventh report. God has been kind and gracious to let us live and have a part in His great work in the world at a time like this. We all have profited in the associations and council of our good Bishop A. R. Clippinger who has been a true yoke fellow to all of us. We do appreciate all he has done for our good and help.

Every annual report has the power of bringing mingled feelings; one, that of rejoicing in the fine things accomplished and the other, the disappointment in that we have not achieved as much as we had hoped we would. However, our victories are such, that we can rejoice and rightly so, for the "Lord hath helped us hitherto." The co-operation in the conference has been splendid. Reports will show that good work has been done. Pastors and people have worked together most heroically and join in the celebration of victories won.

I. OUR CHURCHES.

We have one hundred eight churches, served by eighty-five pastors. Our churches have been courageous as they have laid their heart and hands to the task of building the kingdom through soul winning, the payment of debts, and raising funds for future developments. It is probably true that more notes and mortgages have been burned this year than in any other single year in the history of the conference. It is also probable, that, there is now the greatest balance in our church treasuries that has been known in the history of our conference.

A number of our churches have done well in providing for better and improved property, while others have purchased new holdings.

The Xenia Church has purchased a parsonage at the cost of $6,900.00, the Batavia Church has purchased a house for its parsonage at the cost of $5,500.00. The debt on these houses is well provided for. The Drexel Park Church purchased a house for parsonage purposes just a little time before the setting of the conference last year and has paid out on the debt during the year. The cost was $4,500.00. The Verona Church paid out on its parsonage debt. The Beavertown Church has made provision for a change of buildings to be used for parsonage purposes. The debt is cared for in holdings of the church. The house purchased cost $6,250.00.

The New Madison Church has completed its new building in the year at the cost of $34,000.00, and will carry a debt of $3,000.00 which is more than provided for in short time pledges. This church takes its place among the better church buildings of the conference.

The debts have been liquidated on the Residence Park Church, Beardshear Church, Mt. Airy and Norris Memorial Churches. Oakwood plans to be out of debt on their church by this December, and Middletown plans to be out by the setting of the next annual conference. Cheviot comes in with a substantial sum paid on its debt, and plans to be out in a short time. Clifton, Southern Hills, Willey Memorial and Beavertown have materially reduced their debt.

In the way of decorations: Middetown, Cheviot, Yankeetown, Liberty, Brookville, Five Mile, New Haven, Clough, Willey Memorial, Xenia, Castine, Piqua, Greenbush, and Norris Memorial have beautified their churches.

As to church repairs, it seems that about every church has done some kind of repairing or redecorations. These are as reported to the superintendent, Belmont, Lagonda, Lockington, New Hope, Cheviot, Yankeetown, Otterbein Dayton, Greenville, Potsdam, High Street, Newport, Otterbein Chapel, Hyde Park, Mt. Airy, Miamisburg, East Dayton, Oak Street, Brookville, Ft. McKinley, Fairview, Xenia, Troy Street, Rosewood, Ithaca, West Elkton, Millville, Batavia, Englewood, First Church Dayton, Cincinnati Second, Hamilton First, Drexel, Utica, Wagner Chapel, Vandalia, Miami Chapel, Clough, Miamisburg, North Bend, Southern Hills, Norris Memorial, Willey Memorial, Arcanum, Farmersville, Pleasant Ridge, Eaton, Germantown, Castine, and Pyrmont.

Much of this work has been done by the laymen of these churches. Those reported to have raised money for new churches are: Bowlusville, Harshman, New Madison, Otterbein Dayton, Hamilton First, and Antioch. Euclid Avenue and Otterbein Dayton have purchased property for future developments.

Cheviot, Clough, North Bend, West Elkton and Otterbein Dayton, report payments on parsonage debts. Parsonage repairs and decorations are reported by Lockington and New Hope, Cheviot, Otterbein Dayton, Greenville, Liberty, Newport, Ft. McKinley, Oak Street, Belmont, Mt. Airy, Willey Memorial, Norris Memorial, Otterbein Chapel, High Street, Arcanum, Middletown, Farmersville, Eaton, Union City, Verona, Phillipsburg, Hamilton First, Hamilton Ninth Street, Lewisburg, Piqua, High Street, Beardshear, Troy Street, Euclid Avenue and Germantown. Funds for new parsonages are reported by Lewisburg, Englewood and Ginghamsburg. Residence Park Church is contemplating the purchasing of a house for their parsonage.

The assigned Benevolence Quota to the conference has been paid in full with 4.7% over. All praises to the churches that have paid in full, and twice praise to the second mile churches, for it has been this group that has carried us over to victory. Better success to those who have tried and share not this joy. Better success to them next year. We have done the best by Otterbein Home this year that we have ever done. Our offering reached $18,183.03. Our Ministerial Pension Quota is now paid in full, having raised a little over $16,000.00 during the year.

A little look to the past should help us to better things in the future. We really have challenged ourselves to attempt higher ground, for we have shown ourselves we can if we will. In 1938 our benevolent giving $56,596.00 in 1944 it is $112,049.00. Our membership enrollment was 26,999 and in 1944 it is 29,090 or a net gain of 2,075. In 1938 we reported a net loss of four, and each year since we have been able to add to our membership. The Sunday school average attendance was 12,208 and in 1944 it is 10,507; a loss of 1,702. We might say this is due to the fact that thousands of our youth are in the armed forces, true; but this slip began back when we were not at war. We believe that the Christian Education Advance has done much to help. It seems to me that this blame can be laid at but one door and that is at the door of us all. We seem to have let down and hoped that all would be well. It is my belief and conviction that we can retrieve much of this loss if we will. It will not be easy nor a morning chore, it will be done by hard work, and if we pay the price we can bring the Sunday school back to an attendance equal to what it has been.

We have 108 organized churches and 73 parsonages. Twenty-nine Standard Leadership Training schools have enrolled 191 students; sixteen Community Training schools enrolled, 101; twenty-five Week Day schools enroled, 699; thirty-three Vacation Church svhools enrolled, 1,607; twenty-eight catechetical classes enrolled, 337; and nine Stewardsrip classes enrolled, 446. We have three Adult Christian Endeavor Societies, enrolling 76; fifty-one Young People's Christian Endeavor Soiceties enrolling 1,141; twenty-five Intermediate Christian Endeavor Societies, enrolling 449; and twenty-five Junior Christian Endeavor Societies, enrolling 741. We have eighty-three Women's Societies with a membership of 3,936; seventeen Brotherhoods with a membership of 579; and Life Work Recruits, 45.

One hundred two of our churches take 993 Telescopes. Seventy-six churches and fifty-one parsonages have been repaired. Money has been paid on the debts of thirteen churches and nine parsonages. Eight churches report money raised for new churches, and four report money raised for parsonage funds.

II. OUR MINISTRY.

Fifty-six ministers have served full time and twenty-nine have served part time. Our very great need is more full time ministers and full time stations and circuits.

Our ministerial fellowship has been disrupted in the death of Rev. M. I. Comfort, one of our retired ministers. Rev. Comfort spent many years in the work of our conference. Sorrow invaded the homes of our fellow ministers, taking out Mrs. A. P. Peden, Mrs. J. C. Goodrich, Mrs. J. Leuchauer, Mrs. Katherine Schwab and Mrs. W. T. Frank. Also Mrs. Beachler who formerly was the wife of Rev. J. M. Replogle. Mr. D. A. Puderbaugh who was a very faithful layman and interested in the rasing of the Ministerial Pension Fund, passed to his crowning during the year. Brother Puderbaugh served as the lay associate to the Conference Superintendent in the early days of the Pension campaign.

The health of our active ministers has been reasonably good. Some sickness, a few short stays in the hospital and an operation or two covers the health question of our conference year. Rev. L. G. Ludwick was in the hospital and submitted to an operation. Dr. W. T. Frank was in the hospital for a number of days because of an attack of pneumonia.

Precious little ones came to brighten the homes of Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Forkner of Drexel Park, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Messmer of Lewisburg, and Rev. and Mrs. Sherman Cravens of Beardshear.

Wedding bells rang for Rev. and Mrs. John A. Clippinger, Rev. and Mrs. Rudy Thomas and Rev. and Mrs. Howard James. We offer congratulations to these fine young people.

RESIGNATIONS—Rev. George W. Oliver resigned the Pyrmont Church; Rev. Howard Fox served for a few weeks, when Rev. Mrs. Mary Adams took over and closed the year; Rev. Clayton Lehman resigned the Union Chapel Church and Rev. Sylvester W. Lovell was appointed; Rev. Paul Ducker resigned the Maple Park Church, and Rev. Charles Schelly was appointed; Rev. L. L. McCormick resigned the Springboro and Orogonia Churches and Rev. Ellsworth Benedict was appointed; Rev. Lyal Anderson resigned the Otterbein Home Church and Rev. H. H. Miller was appointed, who served for a few weeks and resigned; and Rev. Delmont Gordy was appointed. Rev. C. W. Fetter leaves Residence Park Church to work with the Dayton and Montgomery County Council of Churches, Rev. A. G. O'Dell leaves High Street Church to accept the Brookside Church in Indianapolis, Indiana, Rev. W. B. Green leaves the West Elkton and Millville churches to take up full time evangelistic work, Rev. C. S. Zimmerman leaves Norris Memorial Church to take work with the Church of the Brethren in Pennsylvania, and Rev. S. L. Brill leaves Rosewood to take up residence near West Milton, Ohio.

Our ministry has done faithful work as reports will show: they have baptized 1,112, conducted 953 funerals, solemnized 626 weddings, read 2,144 books, made 37,821 pastoral calls and preached 6,852 sermons. They have given themselves to every interest of the Church and received $142,572.00 as salary and parsonage rent valued at $22,458.00.

III. OUR QUARTERLY CONFERENCES.

The responsibility for the first round of quarterly conferences was shared between the district leaders and the Conference Superintendent. The district leaders holding forty-eight and the superintendent holding thirty-eight. The district leaders did a splendid job, they were careful and thorough in their task. In the second round the superintendent held all the quarterlies. There was a number of called sessions held during the year.

Quarterly conference licenses were granted to George R. Young of Dunlap Church, to Beam Shaffer of Fairview Church, and to James B. Duval of Middletown Church. Quarterly conference licenses were renewed for Connie O'Bryan, of Greenville, Ralph Schenck of Liberty; Harold Messmer and Walter Racke of Newport; and C. C. Potts of Union City. The following were recommended to the annual conference: Bruce Herrick of First Church, Dayton.

IV. YOUR SUPERINTENDENT'S ACTIVITIES.

This has been a very heavy year, with added responsibilities and the shortage of gasoline the work has been most trying. I have traveled a little over 13,000 miles in the discharge of my duty as your superintendent. I have attended thirty-six committee meetings, forty-eight special meetings, five Otterbein Home Executive Committee meetings, six Otterbein Press Executive Committee meetings, seventy-six conferences, delivered twenty-two addresses, held one hundred forty regular quarterly conferences, six special quarterly conferences, solemnized two weddings, conducted four funerals. I have attended the State Pastors' Convention, the International Council of Christian Education convention in Chicago, the One Day Young People's Convention, the Southeast Ohio Conference, Otterbein Guild Camp, the Sabina Camp, the Evangelical Conference, and assisted in the dedication of the New Madison Church. Had a part in the mortgage burning at Piqua, and Residence Park, a part in the parsonage dedications at Batavia and Xenia. I spoke in the re-opening services at Hiestand and Castine Churches. Took part in the Centennial Celebration at the Five Mile and Beavertown Churches and assisted in the ordination ceremony for Rev. John A. Clippinger.

There has been very little said in this report about finances, this has been left for the report of our efficient treasurer, Rev. C. B. Boda. Little has been said about Christian Education, this is left for the president of the Board of Christian Education of the conference, Rev. J. B. Henry. Statistics are largely left to the careful work of our statistical secretary, Rev. M. B. Klepinger.

May I take this opportunity to express my appreciation to Bishop A. R. Clippinger for his untiring help and co-operation, to Mr. Wesley O. Clark for his counsel and help as associate in the campaign of the Ministerial Pension, to my brethren in the ministry for their splendid assistance in building for a better church and conference, for Him whom we serve; and to the splendid laymen of the conference for their kindness and help in the success of the year. The measure of success can be traced to the whole hearted co-operation of one and all.

Yours in Him,

L. M. HOHN

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That, we follow the denominational theme for this year, "Faith in the Divine Commission of the Church"; and that we study the book "Our Church Faces Union."
2. That, we pay our Benevolences in full for 1944-1945.
3. That the benevolence quota for the Pleasant Hill Church be reassigned.
4. That, the findings of the Rural Church Commission regarding the Bowlusville Church be carefully studied and that progressive action be taken by this session of our conference. That this church become our Rural Church Project.
5. That, we set ourselves to the task of raising the Otterbein College Endowment Fund.
6. That, we join whole heartedly in the Fall Institutes of the conference. These will emphasize Missions and Christian Education.
6. That, we join whole heartedly in the fall institutes of the conference. These will emphasize missions and Christian education.
7. That, we continue to push the matter of a permanent camp for Miami Conference, but with greater vigor.
8. That, we plan now for post war church activities: such as program, worship, service, evangelism, etc.
9. That, we co-operate with the convention on National Missions to Christian Teachers, to be held in Columbus, Ohio.
10. That, we co-operate with the Central District Educational Conference to be held October 23 to 25, at Shelby, Ohio.
11. That, we actively support Church Union with the Evangelical Church.

a. That we hold study classes, discussion groups as in quarterly conferences, official board meetings, Sunday-school class meetings, adult and youth groups, that we emphasize this project in prayer meetings and sermons as far as is practicable.

12. That, since the Ministerial Pension Campaign is over and the fund raised, and since it is obligatory that all men join the plan; we as a conference lay plans to help the men, who are laboring at a salary below the minimum wage set by the conference, to enroll and carry Ministerial Pension.

(A statement: At present there are forty contributory members, eleven non-contributory members. Seven members and eight widows are now receiving pension aid.)

13. That, our churches continue to keep in touch with our young people in the service of our country.

14. That wherever deemed wise that an Evangelistic Commission be formed in local churches.

15. That, we observe World Wide Communion Sunday on October 1, 1944.

16. That Reverends C. S. Zimmerman, Joseph Quick, George P. Campbell, Walter G. Peck and B. F. Petereit be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Report No. 11

SOME OBSERVATIONS

It seems necessary once more to urge painstaking care in preparing reports. If the rules printed on the back of the report form are carefully observed the record will be more accurate.

Moneys collected for new building programs but not yet used should be reported in the item, "Balance in Treasuries" until it is paid out.

The "big brother" contributions made by several churches to help other churches meet their Ministerial Pension quotas have been credited to the churches assisted, not to the churches making the gifts.

The discrepancy between the total gifts to Otterbein Home reported herewith, and the total reported by the conference treasurer may be accounted for by special gifts made direct to the Home.

The number of local organizations for young people and children increased 4 during the past year. The number of men's and women's organizations remains the same.

The use of United Brethren literature in our Church Schools shows little change; although the number of Telescope subscriptions has increased 21%. The use of literature that competes against our denominational literature continues to show a small decrease.

The report shows for the first time in several years a slight upturn in attendance. Both Sunday school and public worship attendances show an increase of about 2%.

The report shows a 50% decrease in non-resident membership during the year. This decrease probably indicates a change in reporting rather than a more settled membership. This item in the record has always been of special concern to me. It is the judgment of many pastors that prolonged non-resident membership leads ultimately to a total loss to the Church and the kingdom. Perhaps the best way to retain the loyalty of the moving member is to encourage an immediate transfer to the Church in the new community. With the gradual breaking down of denominational lines this can be accomplished with less difficulty than in former years.

Pastors' salaries have increased 9%; total giving for all local purposes, 15% total giving for benevolent purposes, only three-tenths of one per cent. The conclusion of this matter is obvious. Increased giving has been directed to the local church, but our sense of mission has enjoyed no growth.

The "Balance in Treasuries" almost doubled over the previous year. Much of this balance is in building and repair funds.

Aside from the Finance Column, the report shows little change from a year ago; and the thrill of increased contributions is somewhat abated when one realizes that, while the national income has risen to unprecedented heights, our nation as a whole contributed only 1½% more last year to all religious and charitable causes.

Most pastors were prompt in sending in their reports. The Cincinnati District was first to have all reports in the hands of the secretary.

REPORT OF THE MIAMI CONFERENCE COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION

The Miami Conference Council of Administration meet quarterly during the year. The second meeting, at Germantown, was in the nature of a mid-year conference.

The following matters were cared for. At each meeting the final completion of the Preachers' Pension campaign was discussed and ways and means of encouraging the delinquent churches were considered. At the second meeting the program of the Board of Christian Education was given prominence. The plans and work of the board were approved.

At the last meeting of the year the Rural Church Commission reported on its study of the Bowlusville parish and the council passed a resolution of approval of the advance project at Bowlusville.

At each meeting the Conference Superintendent and the treasurer gave complete reports and other conference officials presented oral reports.

Report No. 18

REPORT OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The conference trustees met on December 16, 1943 and elected the following officers for the year: Dr. L. M. Hohn, president; Dr. W. I. Underwood, vice-president; Rev. C. B. Boda, treasurer; H. G. Clark, secretary. Other trustees are J. T. Channel, Fred Lammers, C. A. Benzing, and Rev. C. R. Smith.

At the same meeting the trustees approved the plan of the Oakwood Church to finish paying the debt on the church property by December 1, 1944. The present contract between the Church and the conference is to be canceled when the new plan is fully carried out by the Church. The trustees will then assume $5,000 of the loan at the Home Mission Board.

During the year they authorized a payment of $1,500 on the debt of the conference manse and $1,400 on the conference debt.

On December 16, 1943 the trustees approved the plan of the Beavertown Church to sell the parsonage and buy a new parsonage at a cost of $6,500. The property to be free of debt.

On April 11, 1944 the board met in Xenia to inspect and approve the purchase of a parsonage at a cost of $6,500. A loan for the same amount from the Home Mission Board was approved.

On April 26, 1944 the trustees met in Batavia and approved the plan of the Batavia Church to sell the parsonage and purchase a new parsonage at a cost of $5,500. The debt incurred in the transaction is not to be more than $1,500.

On July 1, 1944 the trustees agreed by motion to pay on the balance of debt as of July 1, 1944 of the Norris Memorial Church, one dollar for every two dollars contributed towards the debt by the local congregation up to September 1, 1944.

On July 8, 1944 the trustees made a trip through Greenwich Village and the adjacent community west of Gettysburg Avenue, Dayton, Ohio, to give consideration to the project of establishing a United Brethren Mission in that section of the city. To date no definite action has been taken in the matter. On the same date they made a trip to Harshman looking for a desirable location for a new church for the Harshman congregation. Time was also given by some of the trustees to the inspection of property at Residence Park and Ginghamsburg.

On September 18, 1944, the trustees appointed Doctor Hohn, Mr. Channel, Mr. Benzing, and H. G. Clark as a committee to co-operate with the trustees of the Harshman Church in purchasing a lot and planning for a new church building.

The trustees budget for the new year was fixed at $3,600.

Minor repairs on the manse were left in the hands of the Conference Superintendent.

Report No. 19

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY OF BONEBRAKE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY 1943-1944

About eleven years ago Bishop Clippinger called together a group of Dayton church women and presented to them some of the urgent needs of the Seminary dormitory. From this small group has come the organization known today as the Women's Auxiliary of Bonebrake Seminary.

For the year 1943-44 each Areal Director has reported an increase in membership, with a total membership of 9,102, an increase of 2,300 memberships. Miami Conference has a membership of 1,063, and contributed $261.02, an increase over last year of 453 members and $109.00. We feel justly proud of this increase, and hope that we can do better, or at least as well in the year that lies ahead.

Miami Conference now stands third among the conferences of our denomination in the amount raised for the Women's Auxiliary. The record for the highest four is as follows:

Pennsylvania Conference	$720.55
East Pennsylvania Conference	425.00
Miami Conference	261.02
Allegheny Conference	145.76

The projects which were recommended by the Board of Directors of the Auxiliary and approved by the trustees in May, 1943, were completed during the year, except the purchasing of rugs for a number of dormitory suites. However, we have the assurance from the manufacturer that they can be furnished to us this year. The third floor hall runner was repaired and cleaned, and linoleum placed in the dormitory office.

Mrs. E. J. Drake, vice president and chairman of the painting project, reports as follows:

"During the past year the Auxiliary was hampered in its program of painting and decorating, due to the existing conditions and because the dormitory was filled during the entire summer. However, it was necessary to decorate the dining room and reception room, both of which needed it badly. We were fortunate in being able to obtain the services of a professional decorator, who completed the work for us in good time and in a very satisfactory manner.

"We did find that some of the suites needed attention, but because of the crowded condition, we could not ask a decorator to do this as it had to be done at odd times. Fortunately some of the students were able to do this work for us, and through their efforts we were able to decorate fourteen complete suites and do some retouching in other rooms.

"Our total outlay for the work during the past year was $881.25 for labor and $224.53 for material. The result is a more cheerful and delightful place in which to eat, live, and lounge."

According to action taken last May, the receipts for the year now closing were to be divided as follows: 50% for renovating and improving the dormitory, 35% for the library equipment fund, and 15% for a new refrigerator unit. The amount for the library fund has been turned over to the treasurer of the Seminary, and the 15% is being held in reserve until sufficient funds are accumulated for a refrigerator unit.

The recommendations for the year 1944-45 are:

50% of funds raised to be used for dormitory improvements.

1. Redecorate the kitchen.
2. Redecorate suites as needed.

35% for library equipment fund.

15% for new refrigerator unit.

The treasurer reports $805.79 paid to Wesley O. Clark, treasurer of Bonebrake Seminary for library equipment fund, $345.24 held for refrigeration unit, and a cash balance of $1,792.40.

The treasurer also reports receipts from 25 conferences, showing an increase in funds of $575.00 over last year's figures.

Officers and Areal Directors serving for the year 1943-44 are as follows:

Officers

President—Mrs. S. G. Ziegler.
1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. E. J. Drake.
2nd Vice Pres.—Miss Myrtle Fogle.
Secretary—Mrs. B. M. Hartman.
Treasurer—Mrs. Elsie Creager

Areal Directors

Eastern—Miss Blanche Lengle.
Central—Mrs. E. S. Comrey.
Northwest—Mrs. Fred L. Dennis.
Southwest—Mrs. V. O. Weidler.
Pacific—Mrs. Ira D. Warner.

We wish to express our thanks to President Roberts for his fine co-operation; also the general officers, areal directors, and local church leaders for their good work.

The interest of this organization has spread throughout the entire church, and much has been accomplished in these eleven years. However, new opportunities are challenging us, and we again solicit the help and co-operation of each member of the denomination in order to continue this work.

I wish to urge every pastor and representative here to go back to your local church determined to increase your membership. Dues are twenty-five cents per person a year, and we are stressing membership more than ever before.

You need the Seminary, and the Auxiliary needs you.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) MRS. L. O. SHAWEN, President Miami Conference

REPORT OF READING COURSE FACULTY

The Miami Conference Reading Course Faculty presents the following report:

1. That Mrs. Mary Bierly is continuing to pursue her first year work, having read some of the books and taken some of the examinations; and that she be retained in the first year.
2. That Howard James and Rudolph Thomas, who have successfully completed their junior year in the Seminary, be passed to the second year in the Reading Course.
3. That John Clippinger successfully completed his Seminary course in May of this year, and upon our recommendation was referred to the Committee on Elders' Orders, who approved of his ordination. Upon vote of the elders of the conference he received ordination in the Euclid Avenue Church on June 18, 1944.

4. That Caleb Zimmerman was successfully pursuing the Reading Course under this faculty until the time of his decision to leave the conference; and that with his departure his work under this faculty ceased.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ELDERS' ORDERS

We your committee on Elders' Orders submit the following report: John A. Clippinger appeared before your committee on Elders' Orders on June 11, 1944 and having graduated from Otterbein College and Bonebrake Theological Seminary has met all the educational requirements and having answered satisfactorily the disciplinary questions as to doctrine, we believed him worthy of ordination and so recommended him for ordination. This special action was taken by the consent of the elders of Miami Conference by mail to the Conference Superintendent, Dr. L. M. Hohn.

Ordination services were conducted by his father, Bishop A. R. Clippinger at the Euclid Avenue Church on Fathers' Day, Sunday, June 18, 1944.

COMMITTEE ON CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY

To the Members of Miami Conference:

Your Committee on Candidates for the Ministry reports as follows: Mr. Bruce Herrick, a student in Bonebrake Seminary, appeared before us, and we found that he had met the necessary requirements of the discipline for membership in this body. He gave satisfactory evidence of soundness of faith, and understanding and correctness of doctrine, and of his consecration to the ministry.

We therefore recommend that he be received into our fellowship as an active member.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

These things we have done:

1. Conference activities promoted—
   Ministers' retreat at Bonebrake Seminary and Fairview Church.
   One Day Youth Convention at Euclid Avenue.
   Adult and Children's Workers One Day Convention at Bonebrake Seminary.
   Leadership Training Camp and Pastors' School at Sabina.
2. Church activities promoted—
   Vacation Church Schools were held with 1,856 enrolled.
   Leadership Training classes in which 204 were enrolled.
3. Promoted Financially—
   $200.00 to the Bonebrake Seminary Endowment Fund.
   $75.00 to the Mad River Township Week Day School of Religion.
   $50.00 to Otterbein College Camp.
   $150.00 to the fund for the purchase of a camp site within our conference.
4. Promoted Interdenominational Activities—
   Four members of the Board attended the convention of the International Council of Religious Education.
   Three members of the Board attended at Lake Wawasee the Central States Regional Adult Conference.

Looking ahead we announce and plan to promote:

1. The 14th nation wide annual observance of Religious Education Week, from September 24th to October 1st, using the theme, "Power for These Times."

2. The Miami Conference Institutes on Missions and Christian Education sponsored jointly by the Women's Missionary Society and the Board of Christian Education. This will be an intensive evening program with a meal served from 6:00 to 7:00 P. M., a meeting of ministers with Doctor Hohn from 7:00 to 7:45, a worship period climaxed with an address by Dr. Mabel Silver, and a closing hour starting at 8:30 devoted to age group discussions.

These institutes will be held as follows:

Oct. 2—Northwest District at New Madison.

Oct. 3—Northeast District at Xenia.

Oct. 4—Dayton District at Beavertown.

Oct. 5—Middletown and Hamilton District at Farmersville.

Oct. 6—Cincinnati District at Norris Memorial.

3. At the Central District Educational Conference to be held October 23-24-25 at Shelby, Ohio, the conference will be represented by the General Director, Leadership Education Director, Dean of the Summer Camp, all age-group directors, and the president of the Conference Brotherhood.

4. In forty key cities across the nation during October and November our denomination joins with the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and the International Council of Religious Education in sponsoring a mission to Christian Teachers, starting a movement which is destined to reach down into the local church, emphasizing "the evangelistic obligation and opportunity of the educational agencies of the churches." Shortly after conference there will come to each pastor a packet of materials to help each local church to do its share in this nation wide evangelistic effort.

5. At the meeting of the Executive Committee of our General Otterbein Brotherhood in Dayton, November 10-11-12, our conference will be represented by the Brotherhood President and the Adult Director.

6. November 26 the One Day Convention for Young People, Age Group Directors, Otterbein Guild Counselors, Sunday-school teachers, and ministers, will convene at Euclid Avenue.

7. January 17 in co-operation with Bonebrake Seminary the ministers of Miami Conference are invited to share in a Retreat which will include addresses, at the Seminary and at a noon luncheon at Fairview Church, by Howard Thurman, great negro mystic from Howard University, Washington, D. C.

8. January 21st is to be observed as Men's Day and the Board of Administration has authorized a special offering on Men's Day to finance the new department of Brotherhood and Adult Work, now an activity of the General Board of Christian Education.

9. An observance that has achieved recognition by the government, Catholics and Jews is Family Week, ending with Mother's Day, the second Sunday in May. Let us take this opportunity to exalt Christian Family life.

10. We hope that more churches will find it possible to have a Vacation Church School.

11. We announce the annual Conference Camp, to be held at a time and place as yet undetermined.

12. Again on a Sunday afternoon and evening a convention for adults and adult workers with children will be held at Bonebrake Seminary on a date to be announced.

13. In the interest of Christian Education we urge the 100% observance of Bonebrake Seminary Day in October and complete co-operation in the Otterbein College campaign for funds.

14. We are following the authorization of the conference toward securing a camp site. We are making progress but at the present are not in a position to make a definite statement.

These figures state our challenge:

	1944	1943
Added to church from S. S.	690	668
Total received	1,496	1,434
S. S. enrollment	22,536	21,826
Average attendance	10,835	10,596
Number in vacation church schools	1,856	2,030
Number in catechetical classes	384	387
Members in Young People C. E.	1,165	1,203
Members in Intermediate C. E.	459	413
Members in Junior C. E. and Junior Church	725	677
Members in Otterbein Brotherhood	610	709
Number attending U. B. Colleges	34	50
Number attending other Colleges	156	146
Number subscribers to Religious Telescope	992	818

With 15,000,000 children of school age in America receiving no religious training of any kind the challenge to Christian Education remains great.

REPORT OF THE MIAMI CONFERENCE RURAL CHURCH COMMISSION

MIAMI ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Rural Commission of the Miami Annual Conference conducted Rural Church Institutes in various sections of the conference in the late fall of 1943. These institutes were well attended and, we believe, were profitable to all who attended.

We studied the Bowlusville Parish at the request of the Conference Superintendent and include a recommendation concerning that field in the recommendations below.

We co-operated with the National Convocation of Town and Country Church leaders which was held in Columbus, Ohio, in October of last year and provided scholarships to the annual Camp Ohio for Rural Pastors, under the direction of the Town and Country Committee of the Ohio Council of Churches. The chairman of the commission served as a member of the Town and Country Committee of the Ohio Council of Churches during the year.

We beg leave to recommend the following:

1. That a series of Rural Church Institutes be held again this year, either late in the fall or early in the winter.

2. That a representative be sent to the Second Annual Convocation of Town and Country church leaders at Elgin, Illinois, November 14-16, 1944.

3. That we again co-operate with the Town and Country Committee of the Ohio Council of Churches in helping to defray the expenses of our rural pastors to Camp Ohio and to the school for rural pastors at Ohio State University, if that school is started this year.

4. That we urge the Conference Board of Trustees to look favorably on the program of expansion at the Bowlusville Church and that financial aid be given in the building project, if necessary, and on pastors' salary.

5. That a continuous and thorough study be made of the possible combination of present part-time rural charges into circuits which can be served by full-time pastors, and that it be the policy of the conference to develop rural circuits with such strength as to be able to maintain full-time pastors.

6. That we look with favor upon a possible subsidy to rural charges where there is a real community need for the survival of such charges and that this subsidy shall be allowed in amounts which shall decrease each year as the charge becomes more able to maintain itself.

7. That Miami Conference memorialize the General Conference to provide for a fulltime director of Town and Country word under the Home Mission and Church Erection Department.

RESOLUTION

Whereas the Miami Conference has been unusually blessed with the capable and consecrated leadership of Bishop A. R. Clippinger as the Bishop of the Central Area, and

Whereas it is the earnest desire of the members of this conference that he be continued in his present place as our beloved leader,

Be it resolved that we hereby petition the Stationing Committee of the General Conference to return Bishop A. R. Clippinger as Bishop of the Central District for the Quadrennium 1945-1949.

MEMORIAL TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

Whereas the General Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, meeting in South Bend, Indiana, in May, 1941, adopted a retirement age for the general officers of the Church, and,

Whereas the retirement age adopted calls for retirement at sixty-nine and a half years, instead of seventy, as was originally intended, and,

Whereas the Joint Commission on Church Federation and Union of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ and the Evangelical Church has provided for a retirement age in the Discipline of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, and,

Whereas these provisions are quite dissimilar,

Be it resolved that the Miami Conference memoralize the General Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, meeting in Westerville, Ohio, in May, 1945, that said General Conference bring its action into harmony with the proposed Discipline of the Evangelical United Brethren Church by amending article 21, Section VII, Chapter V (p. 47-48), causing the first paragraph of said article to read as follows:

"A person who has reached the age of seventy-two years, or who will have reached the age of seventy-two years within six months after the opening day of the General Conference, shall not be eligible for election or re-election as a General Church Officer."

REPORT ON PASTORS' RECORDS

We, your Committee on Pastors' Records and Reports, wish to submit the following report.

We have examined the records and have discovered them reasonably accurate and correct.

Several student charge records were not available for examination and such have been notified of their absence as far as possible.

We recommend the continued use of the attendance record sheet and that such becomes a part of the Successor's Record.

Respectfully submitted,

Committee

Report No. 37

REPORT OF THE POLICY COMMITTEE

We, your Committee on Policy, present to you the following report for your consideration. Same to be the Policy of the Miami Conference for the year, 1944-1945.

A. Worship

1. That we accept as our theme for 1944-1945, "Faith in the Divine Commission of the Church."
2. Inasmuch as the Board of Bishops has presented us a fitting and worshipful order of service in our church hymnal, we recommend that our Churches build their worship services accordingly.
3. That all churches join in the observance of world-wide communion Sunday, October first, and that a liberal offering be taken for "Foreign Relief and Re-construction."
4. That all ministers lead their people in a fitting observance of the following days: Temperance, Race Relations, Labor Day and V Day.

B. Christian Education

1. That all churches promote the use of the 1944-1945 booklet, "My Church Faces Union."
2. That the program presented by the Conference Board of Christion Education become the working program of the conference under the guidance of the Board of Directors.
3. That we promote the use of United Brethren literature, and urge our Churches to purchase all Sunday School and Church literature and supplies from the Otterbein Press.
4. That all churches of the conference promote Missionary Education in all departments of the Church: Children's, Young People and Adult.
5. That all churches have representatives in the District Fall Missions' Institutes, October 2-6 inclusive, which this year are sponsored by the Conference Board of Christian Education and the Women's Missionary Association of the Miami Branch.
6. That the ministers of churches where there are no missionary societies do all they can to interest the women in the cause of missions and, if possible, help them to organize a local society and an Otterbein Guild for girls.
7. That all special days be observed with an educational emphasis and when necessary to assure a full benevolence budget an offering be taken.
8. That the Conference Board of Christian Education publish quarterly, in "The Miami Messenger," a list of books on various phases of church work, also recommend the use of the Seminary circulating library.
9. That we co-operate with the Ohio Council of Churches, with County Councils and City Councils whenever and wherever possible.
10. That the Board of Christian Education and the trustees of the conference move forward as rapidly as practicable in securing and developing a permanent camp site.
11. That ministers and young people's directors encourage young people to attend Otterbein College. That the college be supplied with the names and addresses of prospective students.
12. That in our churches we actively promote study of the conditions of peace, and further, that we work with other Christian agencies building public opinion to foster and support the co-operation of our government with other nations in forming a world organization to maintain world peace.

C. Ministry

1. That our conference continue to pursue its high standard in regard to the Ministry.
2. That all ministers be required to attend as many of their district meetings as possible.
3. That ministers give special attention to the encouragement of likely young men to enter the Ministry.
4. That all ministers failing to make accurate annual reports, be notified by the statistical secretary and that he instruct them in the technique of making such reports.
5. That the Conference Director of Leadership Training inform ministers of decisions made by their young people for full-time Christian service in camps and conferences.

D. Evangelism

That the report of the Evangelistic Commission be the program of Evangelism for this conference year.

E. Finance

1. That a full Benevolence Budget be our goal, and that churches be urged to become second mile churches, i.e., 3% paid above quota.
2. That each church elect a Finance Committee, and conduct an Every Member Canvass, and where possible, join in the United Every Member Canvass.
3. That the regular monthly remittance of benevolence moneys be so mailed as to reach the conference treasurer by Thursday following the last Sunday of the month.
4. That in the monthly benevolence reports to the Miami Messenger, churches be rated according to a plan agreed upon by the editor and conference treasurer.
5. That our conference accept its quota for the Otterbein College Centennial Campaign.
6. We recommend that a vigorous effort be made by the churches to meet their respective quotas of the Otterbein College Centennial Campaign.
7. That the proper committee work out a plan by which at least ⅓ of the quota be met this conference year.
8. That every charge employing a full time minister be requested to pay a minimum salary of $1,800 and house, and that all churches be urged to pay their ministers on a weekly basis; that any minister who considers his salary inadequate shall apply to the conference trustees for permission to supplement the same.
9. That early in the conference year we make plans to promote the Otterbein Home Christmas Offering; that a goal be set and that our people be informed and inspired to promote this project.
10. That we give full recognition to the Otterbein Home Auxiliary, and Bonebrake Seminary Auxiliary, and that they have a place in the organization of each local church.

F. General

1. That the conference treasurer's report to the annual conference be mimeographed and copies be distributed to those present.
2. That ministers make definite plans to meet the spiritual needs of returning service men; also, for bringing them into the church program.
3. That on Mondey following the last Sunday of each month all ministers be required to report accurately their average Sunday school and worship attendance to the editor of the Miami Messenger; blank report cards for the same to be provided each minister.

4. That the Conference Superintendent prepare blanks for recording weekly attendance in Sunday services; the same to be kept in the Pastor's Successor's Record.
5. That all ministers shall preach next Sunday in pulpits to which they have been assigned by this conference.
6. That each local church keep in contact with all persons of their respective churches who are in the service of our country.
7. That we continue to cooperate with the War Service Commission in its efforts to minister to war workers now living in the vicinity of war industries.
8. That no more than one address be given each evening of conference.
9. That all ministers meet at some stated place during the conference year in order to exchange ideas of Church and Sunday School work.

Respectfully submitted,

R. V. PELTON, Chairman
W. N. MIRANDA, Secretary

Report No. 38

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We, the members of the Miami Conference of the United Brethren in Christ, assembled in this one hundred and thirty-fifth annual session, with a sense of deep gratitude for the love, grace, communion and guidance of God, do hereby resolve:

1. That we sincerely express our appreciation to Bishop A. R. Clippinger for his fine leadership, counsel and messages.
2. That we in like manner express our thanks to Dr. L. M. Hohn for his leadership as Conference Superintendent.
3. That we express to Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Klepinger and the members of the Belmont Church our thankfulness for fine meals and entertainment.
4. That we extend our appreciation to the newspapers which have given publicity to our sessions and to Rev. Harvey Hahn for his work as reporter.
5. That we give a vote of thanks to our guest speakers and ministers for their inspirational and informative addresses.
6. That we express our appreciation for the uplifting music rendered.
7. That we include in our annual conference program some man or men of national renown for a series of addresses.
8. That we accept the challenge of the times by making every sacrifice necessary to the full realization of Christianity in action, individually and collectively.
9. That the 1945 session of Miami Conference begin on Tuesday and conclude on Thursday evening.

Respectfully submitted,
